WE THE MEMBERS
OF THE STUDENT
STAFF
SINCERELY HOPE
THAT BEHIND THIS CURTAIN
YOU WILL FIND PICTURES AND ARTICLES WHICH WILL SERVE TO MAKE THE MEMORIES OF YOUR HIGH SCHOOL
DAYS INDELIBLE UPON YOUR MINDS

Mr. H. D. Crull

Mr. Crull will always be remembered by our class for his inspiring speeches and his efforts to make Port Huron High School a pleasant place in which to spend our three years of high school.

Mr. M. J. Tomlinson

We, the June class of '47, will always remember Mr. Tomlinson for his fairness and his untiring co-operation in making our years in high school years of happiness.

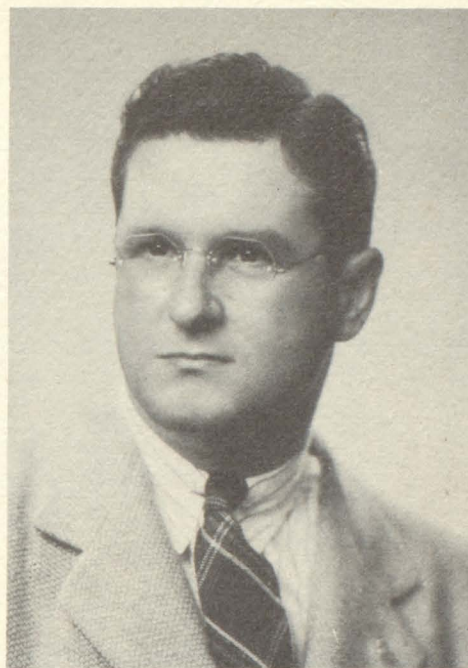

Miss Florence Wiese

For Miss Wiese's kind and helpful guidance during their uphill journey through high school, the seniors offer their hearty thanks.

Mr. Beyer

The boys of Port Huron High School appreciate the co-operation and understanding Mr. Beyer has given them. His task of scheduling all the boys in their chosen fields is a hard and tedious one.

Miss Ellen Kean

To Miss Kean, for her wise and helpful counseling, the senior girls extend their grateful appreciation. Her winning personality and readiness to assist us made many dark days brighter.

Miss Reid

The June class of '47 wishes to thank Miss Reid for her untiring efforts to make our class a happy and successful one. We owe many thanks to you, Miss Reid.

BASKETBALL

Port Huron High School basketball players saw a fairly successful season this year. We had a very successful season, although we lost four of our first five team members.

we had 10 wins and 6 losses, with captain Balough sinking 160 buckets during the season.

Fred Fead received the Clarence Phare Memorial Award this year. Coach Fowler says Fred is nearer being like Clarence Phare himself than anyone who has ever received the award. Fred is one of the hardest working, best sportsman with whom he has ever worked.

Another hard worker, who was elected captain for next year, is tall lanky, light-haired Al Goetz. He was one of our hard working wards this year. Coach Fowler says that although Al is not a polished player, he is very promising.

There is also another group of boys who worked hard to make our season a more comfortable for the players and who had a lot to do with our success. This team behind the team consisted of our managers, Jack Peattie, Bill Powell, Chuck Griffen, Jack Peacock, Joe Couthard and Dennis Collins. They were headed by Brick's right hand man, David Hostteter.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders this year had a very successful season. Much of the enthusiasm at the games should be credited to them.

The cheerleaders this season were: Delores Anderson, Eleanor Balough, Arlene Bauer, Isabel Casdo, Doris Fitzgerald, Sue Sickles, Patsy Hamilton, Norma Langolf, Maxine Tosch, Alice Ceshins, Claire LeGalley, Ronald Ainsworth, B.J. Broadbent, David Leonard, Charles McKay, and Robert Whitman.

This group gave a dinner at the Chateau for the January graduating cheerleaders. Graduating cheerleaders were Betty Langolf, Phyllis Coggan, and Lucille Bettinger. This dinner will become an annual affair.

GOLF "46"

P. H. H. S. golf team of '46 was coached by Mr. Sutherland. The team consisted of four players: Shep Emerick, who graduated in January '47, Ted Holmes, Jerry Neil, and Cliff Friedland.

The home team used the Black River Country Club course for its games. During the '46 season, P. H. H. S. beat Mt. Clemens twice, was defeated by Royal Oak twice, and defeated St. Stephens twice.

The 1947 team which was coached by Mr. Beyer, met with:

Hazel Park	May 2
Ferndale	May 6
Birmingham	May 9
Mt. Clemens	May 13
East Detroit	May 15
Hazel Park	May 20
Ferndale	May 23
Birmingham	May 27
Mt. Clemens	May 29
East Detroit	June 3

TRACK "46"

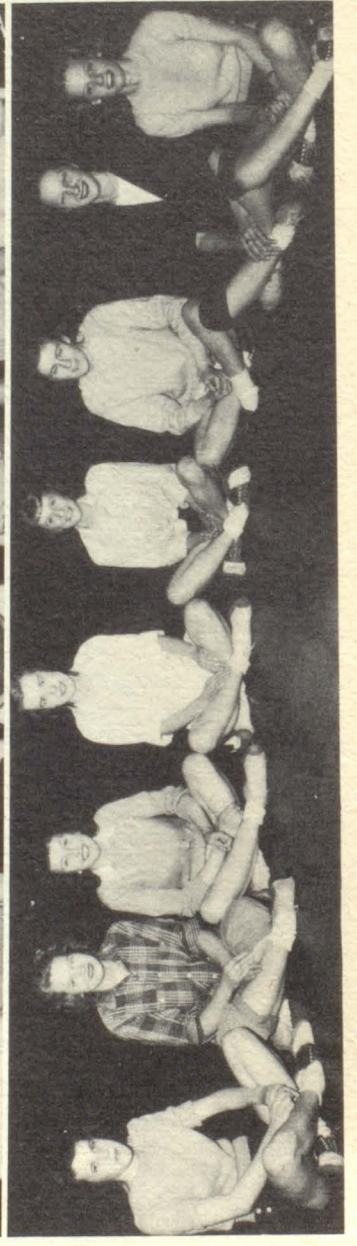

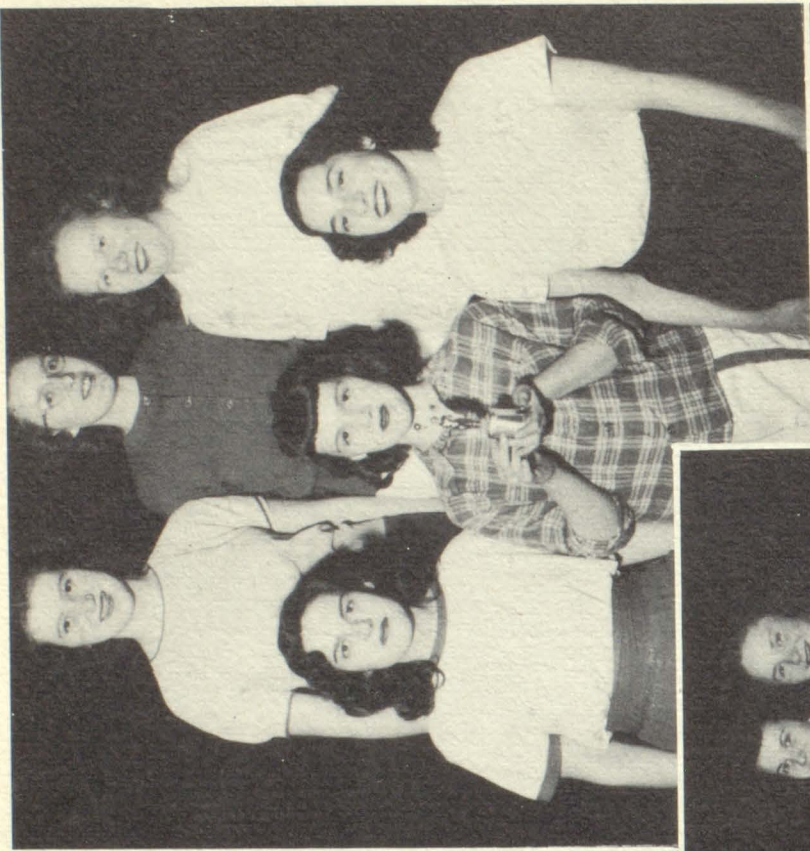

The 1946 track team, ably coached by Mr. Harry Anderle, was an exceptional one, because we had several very good runners and hurdlers. The team was captained by Andy Balough, the best half-miler in the league. Andy also competed in the state meet.

Jack McKay was among the best low hurdlers in the league and also in the regionals. Louis Atkins stood out because of his ability to run 100 and 200 yard dashes. Because he graduated in January '47, he did not compete in the regionals this spring. Last, but not least, was Floyd Reno, an excellent high hurdler. P. H. H. S. finished last year fourth place in the league. The school was represented in the state meet by Andy Balough, Jack McKay, and Ken Proctor.

The "46" tilts included: Mt. Clemens, Hazel Park, Ferndale, Marine City, and Birmingham. All the matches were away since Port Huron doesn't have a track.

The 1947 schedule included:

Marine City	April 22
Hazel Park	April 25
Birmingham	April 29
Mt. Clemens	May 2
Ferndale	May 9
Regionals at Ferndale	May 17
East Detroit	May 20
State Meet at Lansing	May 24
League Meet at Ypsilanti	May 28

G. A. A.

The G. A. A. meets in the gymnasium third hour on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays. Classes are divided into basketball teams, which play against each other to gain practice for the tournament in which many G. A. A. girls participate.

This year, besides the basketball tournament, the girls held baseball, archery, and tennis tournaments.

To wind up the G. A. A. 1946-1947 year, the girls held their annual banquet in May. At that time the letters were awarded and the graduates were honored. Miss Teachout is the advisor.

Baseball

Coach Herring is very optimistic about the 1947 baseball season. We hope for as successful a season as we had last year; however, we had nine wins and three defeats. Top men were Jerry Alexander, John Hazley, Bill Bearss, Jim Regier, Dick Cain, Jerry Toles, and Ralph Fernandez, who all but hit 300. Jerry Toles, Cain, and Ralph Fernandez lost only one game each with their very speedy pitching. This year we find we have lost these excellent players but with 'John' working with the men he has we can expect some definite results.

The schedule is:

Friday	April	18	Marysville	There
Tuesday	April	22	Marysville	Here
Tuesday	April	29	East Detroit	Here
Friday	May	2	Hazel Park	There
Tuesday	May	6	Ferndale	There
Friday	May	9	Birmingham	Here
Tuesday	May	13	Mount Clemens	There
Friday	May	16	East Detroit	There
Tuesday	May	20	Hazel Park	Here
Friday	May	23	Ferndale	Here
Tuesday	May	27	Birmingham	There
Thursday	May	29	Mount Clemens	There
Thursday	June	5	Hazel Park	Here

Tennis

The P.H.H.S. tennis team last year ran into stiff competition from all of the other schools in the league. Mr. Milton Crawford coached the team. Of the six games we had the bad luck of not winning any. We lost to Ferndale, Birmingham, and Mount Clemens. Two games were played with each team.

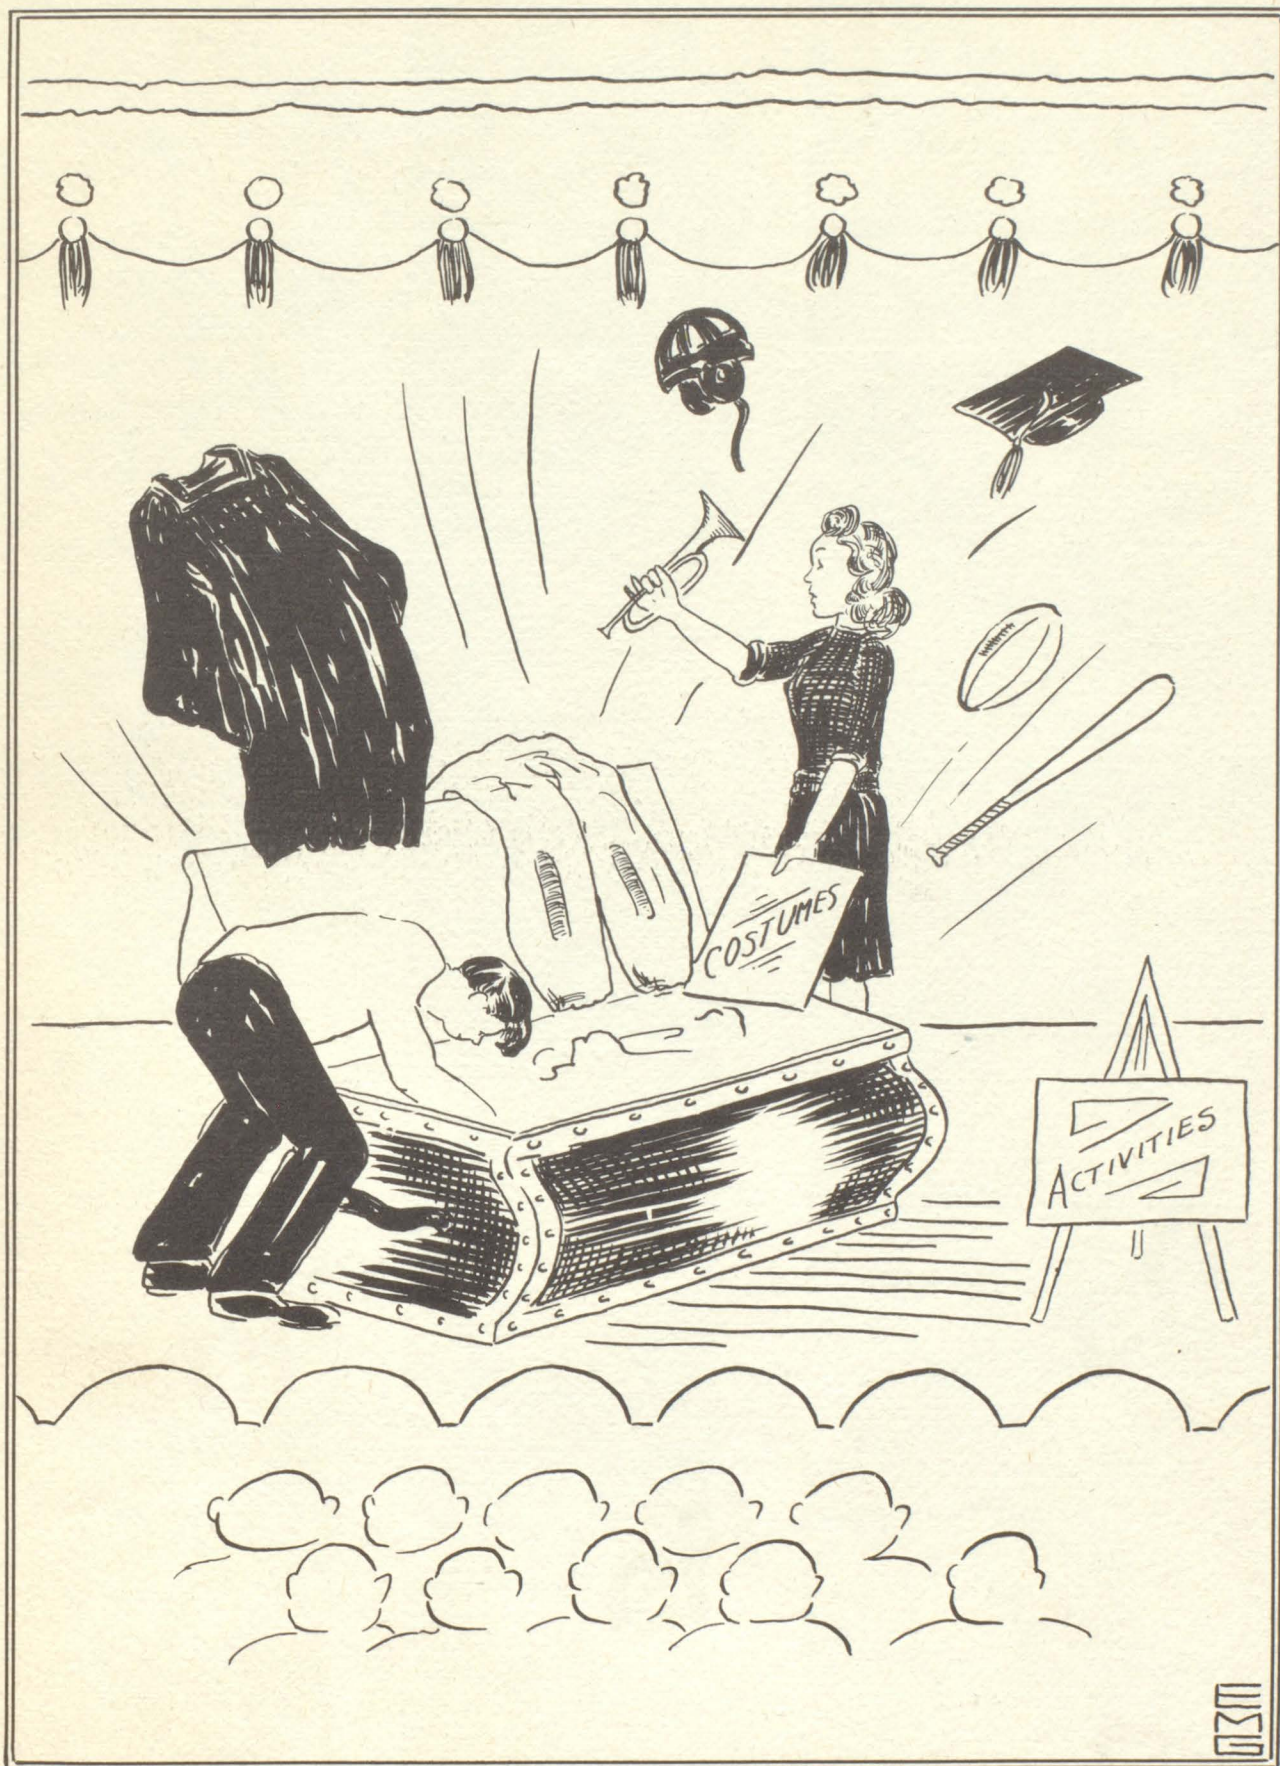

The boys on the "46" team were: Walter Arnott, Harry Battram, John Berka, Stanford Boley, Don Chasey, Bob Evans, Dave Jolivette, Bill Kersul, Jack McCraney, John Orr and Bob Welsh.

Ferndale won all its games during the "46" season and was awarded the revolving trophy.

Port Huron's 1947 schedule includes:

Ferndale	May 6
Birmingham	May 9
Mount Clemens	May 13
Ferndale	May 23
Regional tennis	May 24
Birmingham	May 27
Mount Clemens	May 29

CHOIR

The High School Choir, under the direction of Miss Bess Hyde, has had a very active year.

The Choir gave their annual Christmas program at the Desmond and High School Gym. The Holy Week assembly and Good Friday program were held at the Desmond.

The County Festival was held at the High School Gym April 30. Schools represented were Port Huron High School, St. Stephen, Algonac, Marine City, St. Clair, Yale, Marysville, and Sarnia, making it an international affair for the first time. On May 9 and 10 the Choir attended the State Festival at Michigan State College. On May 9 solos and ensembles were heard, and on May 10 the choirs sang. The Choir gave a concert May 21 in the gym.

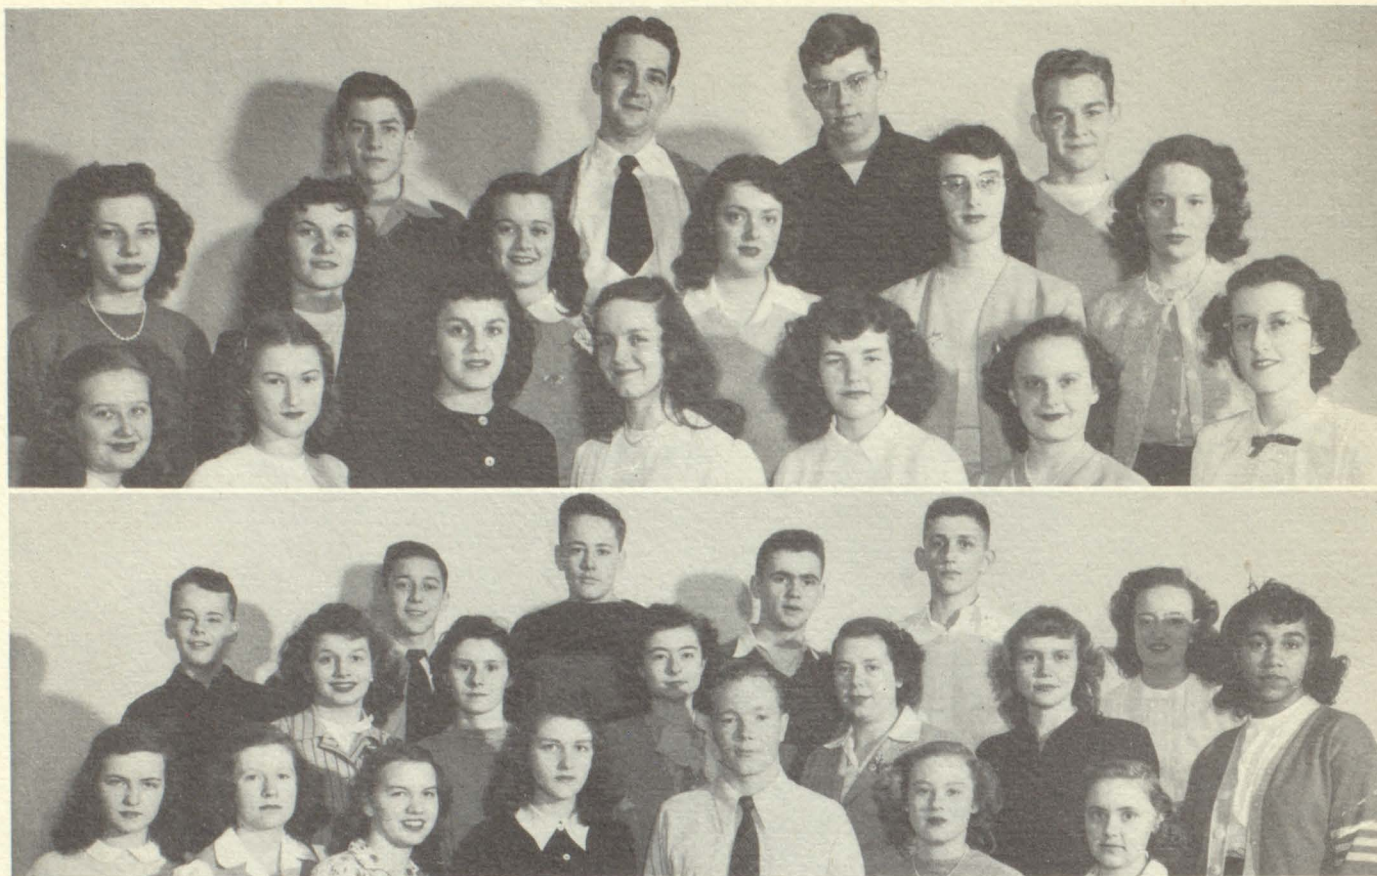

Graduating seniors received pins at the annual banquet in May.

ENSEMBLE

The Ensemble this year was open to any Choir member who wished to join. The Ensemble gave its annual Good Friday program in conjunction with the Choir at the Desmond Theater, and also sang at the assembly. Members worked very hard all semester. Miss Bess Hyde director, has given generously of her time. Officers are Bob Gibbs, president, and Donna Perry, secretary.

SOLO TRAINING

The purpose of the Solo Training Club is to develop girls voices and to teach the girl to sing alone. Some of the members sang at the Spring Festival and others have sung before various clubs. The club sponsored by Miss Bess Hyde. Emily Collins, president, and Carol White, secretary, are the officers.

STUDENT STAFF

The Student Staff under the direction of Miss MacLaren and Miss MacDonald has worked earnestly this semester to bring you this, "Student." Its success is largely due to the efforts of the staff: Mary Frances Leach, editor; Deana Deligianis, assistant editor; Grace Keeler and Dorothy Boise, typists; Dick Ludwig, feature writer; and Ron Mires and Eugene Dimick, sports writers; reporters, Emma Jean Oslin, Judy Kilpatrick, Barbara Schaeffer, Barbara Thomas, Joanne Slosser, and Charlotte Lanfear; art, Eunice Green.

Business affairs were directed by Charles Holmes, business manager, and Charlotte Lanfear, assistant business manager.

LIGHTHOUSE

The Lighthouse is published every week by the members of High School that belong to the National Duplicated Press Association, Michigan Inter-scholastic Press, and Quill and Scroll.

The Lighthouse Staff is divided into two groups, the editorial and business staffs.

The business staff consists of; business manager-Sue Mugavero; advertising-Daisy Crumback and Sanford Boley; Mimeographing-Bill Deligianis and Bob Petengill; typists-Hilda May and Elaine Krupczak. Miss Alice Anderson is the advisor.

STUDENT COUNCIL

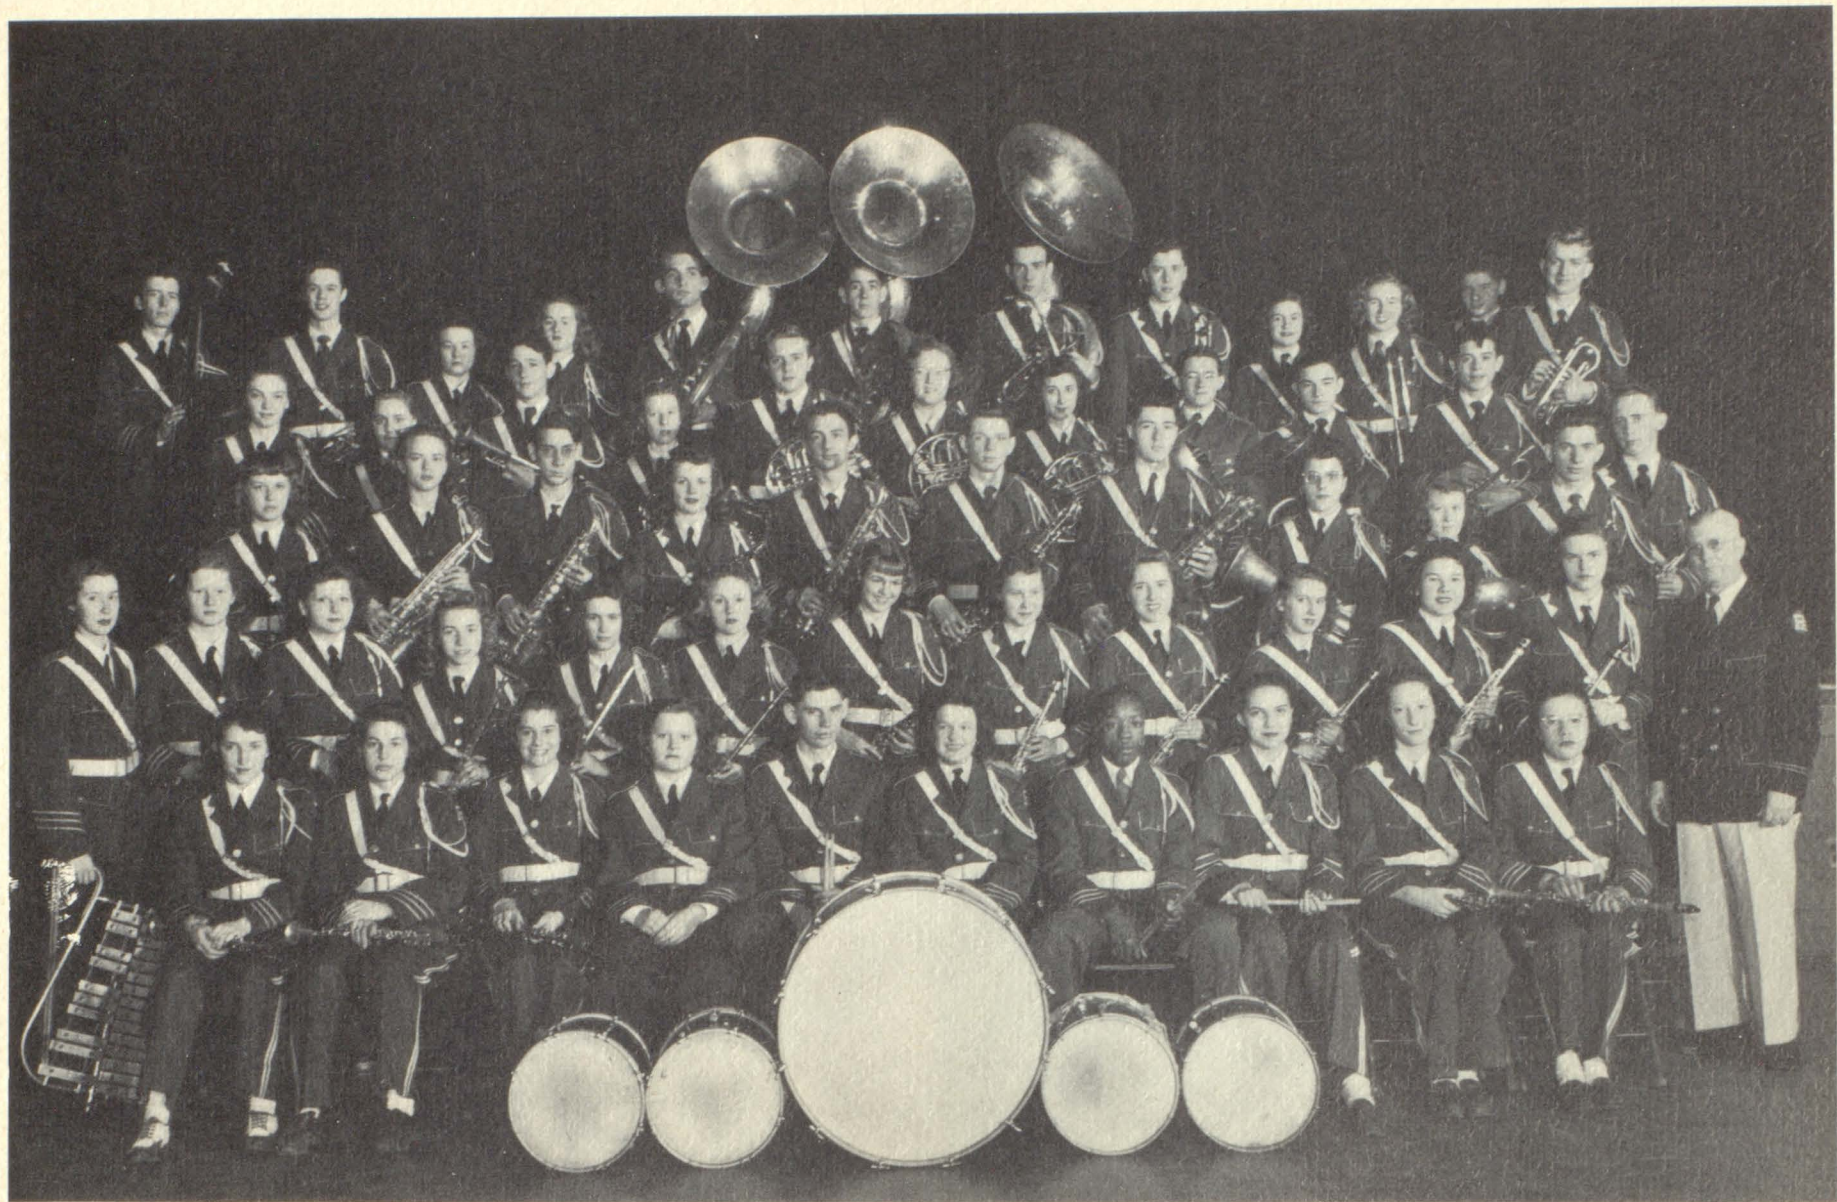

The Student Council this year has been very active in school activities. The officers are as follows: Orie Dykman, president ; Don Geick, vice-president; Donna Kern, recording secretary; Eleanor Pochydolo, secretary and Keith Stoner, treasurer.

The members of the executive board are: Joyce Teeple, 10B; Sally Smith, 10A; Jim Watson, 11B; Louise Alexander, 11A; Dorothy Hoday, 12B; and Andy Balogh, 12A.

The projects thus far this year have been the magazine sales, class elections, dances and assemblies. During May, the council conducted the Eastern Michigan League Meeting of all councils, to discuss student council problems.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

On December 7, 1922, the first charter was presented to the National Honor Society in Port Huron High School and since that time the organization has played an important part in school affairs. The members of the Honor Society are elected by the faculty on the qualifications of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Members of the society have charge of the book exchange, trophy case, and initiation of new members whose officers are: president, Gerald Feick; vice president, Keith Stoner; secretary, Dorothy Boise; and treasurer, Norman Knowlton.

BAND

An excellent musical group, under the fine supervision of Mr. Straffon, is our high school band. The band has done a great job in playing at all the home basketball games and at every assembly. The music which is produced by this organization is the type that would make any school.

BOY'S HI-Y

The boys' Hi-Y club has progressed rapidly this semester toward its goal of $100, for its World Youth Fellowship Fund donation. As well as promoting many other favorable service projects in the school and community, it has done much on the social side-----sponsoring dances, parties, and suppers. Club members have heard many instructive and entertaining speakers.

LATIN CLUB

Miss Eichhorn's Latin Club, which meets in room 206 every Monday, takes its officers' names from the names of Roman Officers. It has a planned program with something special for every meeting. Some of the Latin Club topics are: Latin in Government and Social Studies, Latin in Advertising, Latin Terms in Biology and Chemistry, and Latin in Magazines and Movies. The officers are: Peggy Large, consul; Margaret Wilton, consul; Carol Barker, scriba; Florence Jeske, quaestor; and Joanne Wheelihan, aedite.

FRENCH CLUB

The most interesting French club program this year was the one during which Ernest Michel, Times Herald Staff writer and escapist from a German concentration camp, told of his experiences. The club hopes to obtain new members and to maintain an active part in school activities.

The officers are: President, Mary Cruickshank; Vice President, Patricia Praeshaw; Secretary, Valene Thorner; and Program Chairman, Wilma Russel. The members are: Sam Matar, Connie Westbrook, Robert Lee, Shirley Conrad, Lois Arilton, Lois Woods, Marcella Robertson, and Charlotte McCormick.

DRAFTING CLUB

The drafting club, which consists of seventeen girls, meets every Monday in room 207 under the direction of Mr. Shelton. The members draw house and floor plans and practice lettering, as they combine architectural and mechanical drawing for a well-rounded program. Each girl is free to choose her own project. The officers are: Carolyn Gast, president and program chairman; Bette McAllister, vice president; and Shirley Gustke, secretary.

SOJOURNERS

The Sojourners Club is an organization for the colored girls and boys of Port Huron High School.

The purposes of the club are to study problems of minority groups, to help Negro students find a place in school life, and to help other students to become conscious of the problems of Negro students.

This group gave a Thanksgiving tea for the Student Council members. In March, club members gave their annual assembly to promote better feeling between the minority and majority groups.

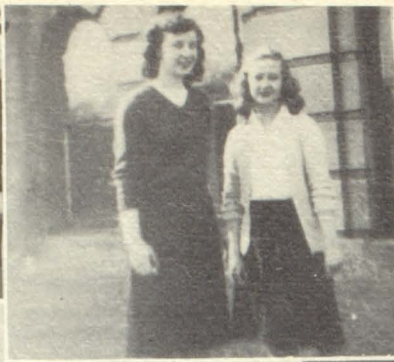

The officers of the club are: Lois Woods, president; Priscilla Burrell, vice-president; Gwendolyn Reynolds, secretary; Jean Washington, treasurer; Doris King, program chairman; and Miss Reid, sponsor.

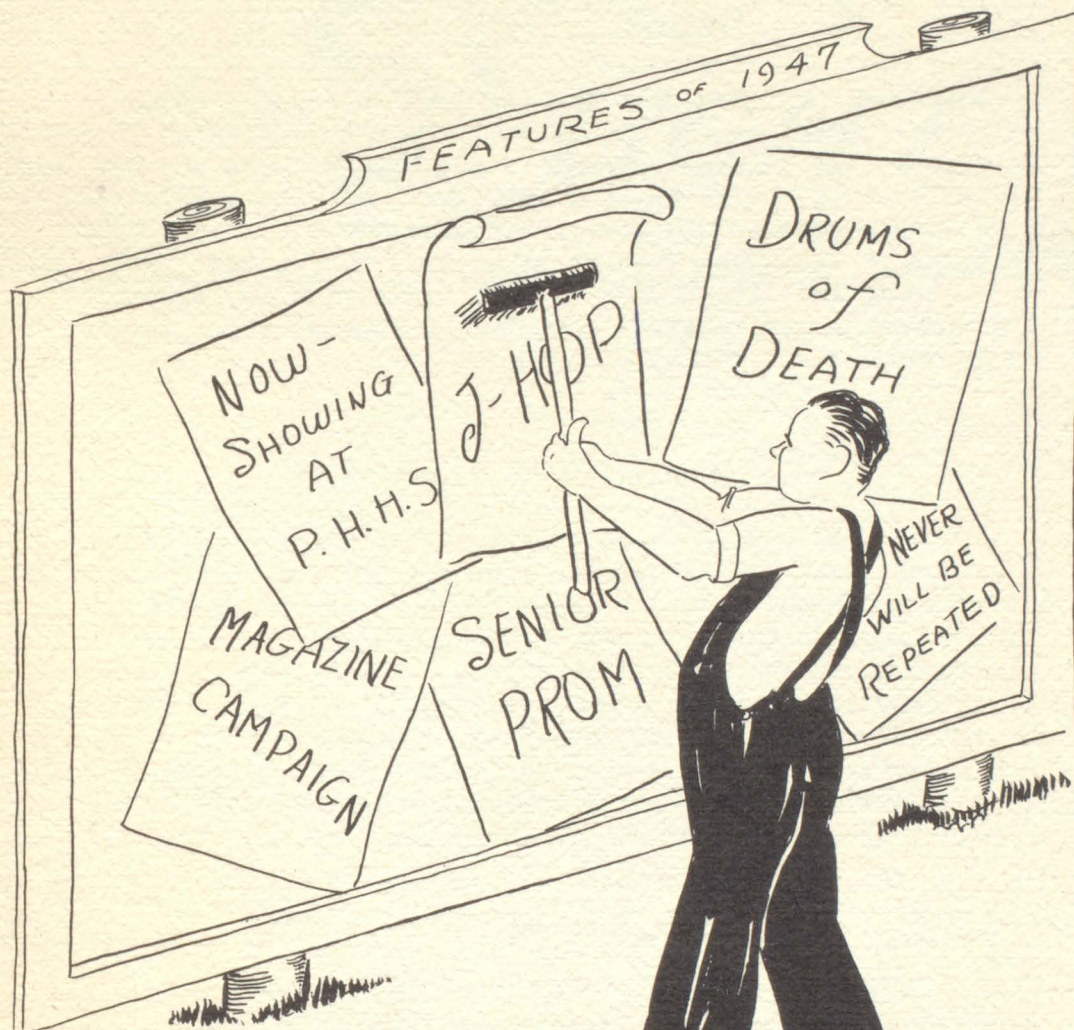

DRAMATICS CLUB

The tenth grade dramatics club is divided into two sections. One half meets on Tuesday, the other on Wednesday. Both groups meet in room 108 with their sponsor, Mrs. Jacobus. They are studying two plays which they will present at an assembly in June. The officers of Tuesday's club are: Marilyn Peck, president and Nancy Hall, secretary. The officers of Wednesday's group are: Norman Winter, president and Keith Buckley, secretary.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

The Junior Red Cross, with Mrs. Cora Posey as its sponsor, has for president, Joyce Ludlow; vice president, June Klause; secretary, Norma Winters; treasurer, Louise Boman and program chairman, Mary Upleger. The active members are Carolyn Gast, Gloria Gast, Shirley Gustke, Hope Kilbourne, Mary Marigold, Marjorie May, Catherine Nelson, Carol Simpson and Mary Warren.

SPECIAL NOTICE
LAST DAY OF SCHOOL
JUNE 20TH

King Henry V

On February 10 the following announcement was sent to all rooms of the high school: Tomorrow, February 11, all students wishing to go to Sarnia to see "King Henry the Fifth" will be excused from school at 10:30.

At that hour the next day nearly five hundred students climbed into school and Blue Water Bridge busses which were waiting at the school doors. It was amazing to see how many students could really get on a bus. Every student managed to find a place somewhere, however, and were all delivered safely in front of the Odeon Theater at 11:15.

The movie, though some may not agree with me, deserved the praise it had received from Port Huron teachers, lovers of Shakespear and motion picture critics.

Tour of Marysville's Edison Plant

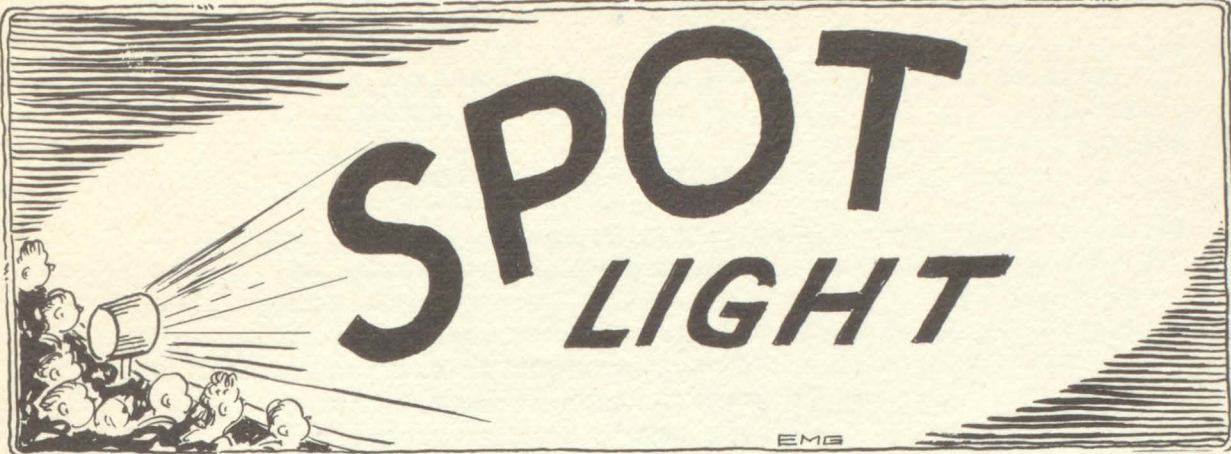

For some pupils there were not many classes to attend during the week beginning with February 10. For on the 11th of this month about five hundred students went to Sarnia for the day and on the 12th all of Miss Muhlitzner's economics classes and Mr. Bond's physics classes went on a tour through The Detroit Edison Plant in Marysville. The plant, celebrating Edison's one hundredth birthday, opened its doors to the visitors for the first time since the beginning of the war. This trip proved to be very interesting and most of the tourers agreed that in cases like this, experience is the best teacher.

School Dances

During the school year of 1947 many "all high" dances were held in the gymnasium, under the auspices of various clubs and classes.

The social science classes sponsored a "record" dance, called the "Transcription Tramp" and gave away a record as a door prize. The stage curtain was decorated with appropriate music notes and records. Committees for this dance consisted of the members of the social studies classes.

On Friday, March 21, the 10-A class sponsored a "Sadie Hawkins" dance in the gym. The usual procedure was reversed when the girls invited the boys and gave them mock corsages, which were judged to find the cleverest and most original. A splendid floor show was provided and a record crowd seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves.

"ON STAGE"

Each semester P.H.H.S. gives an amateur a chance to bring to the students, faculty and the general public the many talents high school students possess. This year the LOB class, under the direction of Miss Alice Anderson, sponsored the show, which they called "On Stage."

The highlight of the evening was a style show. The models were boys from Miss Hyde's choir. They wore costumes of all periods and types: evening, afternoon, and sports wear.

Other performers were: Betsy Donahue, who sang "Make Believe;" Harry Battram and Jack Peattie, who did a black face act; George Wilson, who played a selection on his magic violin; and "Bobbie's Boys," who sang two songs in close harmony. "Bobbie" is Mr. Dierks, the boys' director.

Along the singing line were Marcia Rouse and Duane Wakeham who sang the "Trolley Song;" and Gwen Reynolds singing "The Boogie Blues."

BOOKS AND TEACHERS

Now books, they are those funny things,
That sit up on the shelf.
I think I've read 'bout all of them.
I've almost spoiled myself.

The teacher says, "Geometry,
You'll find it in the book."
Biology is in there too,
I knows because I looks.

The English teacher says to me
"Those books you'll have to read."
It seems I learn so many things
Lots more'n I'll ever need.

It seems no matter where I go
They say in every class,
"I guess you'll have to read those books
If you expect to pass.

Now teachers know so many things
That's written in the books
That you can tell 'em everywhere,
They have such funny looks.

SENIORITIS

Gather round me little chillun, I've a tale of woe to spill,
It has a sad, sad ending and I'm sure you'll get a chill,
For it's about a dread disease that comes 'round twice a year,
So listen now, I'll tell you more--I'm sure you're all on ear.
It comes in epidemics, and it always has its toll,
Its crop is never failing for it pitys not a soul.
Once you're in its clutches and you become infected--
You might as well let out your sails for nothin' more's expected.
There is no cure for this disease, it has strived down through the years,
And for your Pop and his Pop's Pop, it's caused a lotta' tears.

Its symptoms are quite desperate, as simple as they seem,
The greatest of them bring the yearn to sit and dream,
Seniors are its victims and it seems a cryin' shame--
For it seems its first objective is make your brain go lame,
And once your head starts swimmin'--you're really off the beam.
To ask you to push a pencil--or add up a lot of sums,
To you seems just a good excuse for the teacher to beat her gums,
You consider yourself an idol; seniors all agree that you and all
Your Royalty should be treated with ease.
And now to all my classmates--that bug is here to bite us,
So if you get these symptoms--you'll know it's SENIORITIS.

MAGAZINE SALES.

Magazines! Magazines! Who will buy Crowell's magazines? This cry rang through the city February 25 to March 3. The quota for Port Huron High School was $1000. Passing our quota, we had a final profit of $1022.71. Mrs. Alexander's room, the winning one, sold $1440 and was treated to a lunch at Wagon Wheel Inn and to a movie. Miss French's group won the second prize with $1430 and was treated to a movie as a reward.

The Student Council purchased 27 prizes, ranging from a record player to pen and pencil sets. The prize winners were, in order: Jim Stinson, Ray Woods, Tom Kersey, Charlotte Lanfear, Don MacPherson, Marvin Tosch, Tom Korn, Jerry Reid, and Walter Cumerlato. All students who sold $10 worth of subscriptions got a half-day holiday. The profit made on the sales was used to buy new display cases.

SENIOR PLAY

The cast of the Senior Play, "Drums of Death", consists of Harley, Jim Sterling; Dr. Cameron, Alvin Lewis; The Sheriff (Newt Cooper), Jack Snyder; Jules, Charles Holmes; Mrs. Gillett, Barbara Vining; Mrs. Oakley, Shirley Conrad; Eugenia, Joan Markell; Amelia, Gayle McMeeken; Celeste, Priscilla Burrell; Paula Bailey, Carol Barker. The play as you can tell by the title was a mystery with Jim Sterling in the role of the federal investigator and Alvin Lewis in the part of the villain.

GONE ARE THE DAYS

Once upon a time there was a great big important senior seated among other "important" seniors awaiting presentation of the diplomas which would make them alumni of P.H.H.S. A wave of "nostalgia" swept over Our Hero as his mind swiftly reviewed his three years in high school.

His first image was that of himself as a trembling but excited sophomore, being herded with others of his class into the "aud" to learn the "whys and wherefores" of P.H.H.S. from Mr. Tomlinson and Miss Reid. Our Senior pictured himself trudging up the front steps that night, battered and bruised after his heroic struggle to get through mobs of upper classmen and find his classrooms.

After a period of bewilderment (10B), he suddenly found himself at Club Les Grades Rouge attending the first dance sponsored by his class, now 10A's, and headed a second time by James Sterling, a capable president.

Next he pictured himself as a Junior, possessing more courage after having survived for a year. After a period of several uneventful months Our Senior found himself once more caught in the whirlwind of the activity which only an idealistic, progressive class as his could provide. This time it was a "Blujean Hop" called the "Cowboy Jamboree." Another big success for his class, this party "raked" in a considerable sum which was placed in the capable hands of Ron Giles, class treasurer. The Jamboree was soon followed by a brainstorm, which turned out to be the "J-Hop" Came the big day and juniors hurried to complete decorations, which included a false ceiling of blue and white crepe paper. At 9 P.M. dancers entered the gym through a big heart, to the accompaniment of Dean Dennison's orchestra. After this dance came the election of the twelfth-grade president, Jack Richards. The gardenia was selected as class flower, and blue and silver as class colors. Then came exams, and Our Senior was granted the title of twelfth-grader. This being the final year for his class, it was readily decided to make the most of it.

Activities started with a "bang" on November 11, with the "Harvest Hop." Music was provided by Mimmy Maurer's orchestra under decorations which included a big harvest moon. Among the guests were students from Mt. Clemens, Sarnia, and other "down-river" schools. Following this successful affair, the class (including Our Senior) went all out for the "Spotlight," took its last Xmas vacation and returned for exams.

Once more caught in the whirlwind of activity, Our Senior soon found himself sitting before a camera, looking pretty for his graduation pictures. Getting his pictures, he rushed out to exchange them, order name cards, and get measured for his cap and gown. The last dance came on February 14, and in keeping with the season was called "Cupids Romp." Music was by the "Heartbeats" against a background of big, red hearts, gayly decorated with names of steadies. Donna Perry, a sultry brunette, was crowned queen of this dance.

Our Senior next helped choose the class motto: "We will lead in the future as we have led in the past." He also helped select "Drums of Death," a thrilling mystery, as the Senior play.

And now the climax of the three years of drudgery and apple polishing! Our Hero sits with a lump in his throat as the crucial moment arrives. Swallowing the lump, he struggles to his feet and walks with a feigned air of nonchalance to claim that long anticipated sheep-skin. His expression changes to one of smug satisfaction, as gripping the precious piece of paper, he goes forth to conquer the world.
